

Daniel R. Puma, Jr. - Certified General Appraiser

Supervisor of Assessments, Prince Georges County

Daniel R. Puma Jr. has been with SDAT and the Prince George's County Office since 1975. He began his assessment career as an Appraiser Trainee under the county system, has worked at every level as a residential assessor and is currently the Supervisor of Assessments. He holds a Certified General License, is a Certified Maryland Property Assessor and held the SRA Designation with the Appraisal Institute through 2010. Dan has been an IAAO State Certified Instructor since 1986, teaching the IAAO course 101 for the SDAT. He is also an Associate Adjunct Professor at the University of Maryland College, an Adjunct Faculty member at Trinity University in Washington DC and has been a member of the adjunct faculty staff at Prince Georges Community College, Bowie State University and the Washington Adventist University. A lifelong resident of Prince Georges County, he currently resides in University Park with his wife, Teresa, and their three children, Bridget, Colleen, and Dan.