Jonathan Biran

Jonathan Biran focuses his practice on complex civil and criminal litigation at the trial and appellate levels. Jonathan was a federal prosecutor for more than 17 years before leaving government service to form Biran Kelly LLC with his colleague at the United States Attorney's Office, Ty Kelly. Jonathan is an accomplished trial and appellate lawyer. Prior to leaving the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Maryland, Jonathan served as the Appellate Chief for that office, where he supervised the appellate work of several dozen Assistant United States Attorneys, in addition to maintaining his own significant appellate caseload. Before serving as the Appellate Chief at the U.S. Attorney's Office, Jonathan was a member for several years of that office's Fraud and Public Corruption Unit, where he prosecuted major white collar criminal cases in Baltimore and Greenbelt, Maryland, including public corruption offenses, procurement fraud, mortgage fraud, and other economic crimes. While in the U.S. Attorney's Office, Jonathan was the founding coordinator of the Maryland Mortgage Fraud Task Force, which is comprised of more than two dozen federal, state, and local law enforcement and regulatory agencies with a stake in combating mortgage fraud. Jonathan has lectured widely on trial and appellate advocacy, as well as on procurement fraud, mortgage fraud, and other white collar crime issues. While he was an Assistant United States Attorney, Jonathan was selected to be one of the trial advocacy instructors for new federal prosecutors at the Department of Justice's nationwide training facility, the National Advocacy Center in Columbia, South Carolina.

Jonathan has successfully argued many cases in the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, as well as in other federal Courts of Appeals, including:

- United States v. Ortiz, 669 F.3d 439 (4th Cir. 2012)
- United States v. Moore, 477 F. App'x 102 (4th Cir. 2012)
- United States v. Poole, 640 F.3d 114 (4th Cir. 2011)
